

New Hampshire State Government Jobs

Introduction- New Hampshire is a democratic republic state. Concord is the state capital and the legislative chambers, executive offices and the Governor Office are located in its State House.

About New Hampshire State Government: The state government includes three branches: Judicial, Executive and Legislative. The state is still governed by its 1783 constitutions. It is one of the rare constitutions which acknowledge right of revolution and does not require any public schools.

In the year 1993, the Supreme Court of the state ruled that the state required to fund and define public schools throughout the state. The legislature of the state was slowly compiled and the supervisory role of the court ended in 2008 since the earlier roles were replaced.

Employment at the New Hampshire State Government: According to the Census data of 2008, the New Hampshire state and its local governments employed 87,006 individuals. 61,395 of these were working full time with the government.

The state offers its employees a wide range of benefits and competitive salaries. All employees receive a choice of life insurance programs from which they can select the program most suitable for them. The state provides dental and health benefits after completing a full month of regular, full time employment with the state.

Employees can select between HMO and POS for health insurance. Jobs with New Hampshire State Government also offer dental and health insurance to part time employees. All New Hampshire State Government jobs offer employees access to its Retirement System which is a contributory benefit pension plan defined by the employee. Careers with New Hampshire State Government also come with flexible spending accounts which allow employees to set aside money through payroll deduction. This allows employees to pay for health expenses which are not covered by the medical insurance plan.

New Hampshire State Government also offers an Employee Assistance Program which is a voluntary, confidential resource which is offered by the Dept. of Health & Human Services. The program assists state employees as well as their families with several life challenges and issues.

Usual New Hampshire State Government Job Openings: New Hampshire State Government

Jobs are available in a wide range of agencies, as given below:

- Department of Administrative Systems
- Department of Environmental Services
- Department of Information Technology
- Department of Transportation
- Department of Health and Human Services
- Department of Corrections

Current New Hampshire State Government Job Openings: Some of the positions that are currently available in New Hampshire State Government are

- Accountant
- Agency Technology Manager
- Manager- Child Protection Services
- Civil engineer
- Contract Administrator
- Database Administrator
- Corrections Officer
- Cultural Resources Assistant

The state also offers a program for continuing professional development with the help of the Bureau of Training and Education. This program is available to all Federal, Municipal, County and State employees.